

History & Classics

Evening lecture series 2020/21
King Edward VI School, Southampton
Hospitality Suite

HISTORY 18:30–19:30

Wednesday 11 November

Dr Elisabeth Forster, University of Southampton.
Peaceful China? Chinese debates about war and peace in the 20th Century

Wednesday 2 December

Professor Kendrick Oliver, University of Southampton
Explaining McCarthyism

Tuesday 19 January

Dr Xavier Guegan, University of Winchester
The British Empire in the second half of the 19th century

Wednesday 9 February

Professor Adrian Smith, University of Southampton
President FD Roosevelt and the First Lady, folk fans: the New Deal and American popular music

Wednesday 3 March

Dr Hannah Young, University of Southampton
Hampshire, sugar and slavery

Wednesday 17 March

Dr Chris Prior, University of Southampton
"I would annex the planets if I could." Cecil Rhodes, Britain and building an empire in Africa

Wednesday 21 April

Dr George Gilbert, University of Southampton
Nicholas II and Stalin: A comparison in tyranny?

CLASSICS 19:30–20:45

Wednesday 16 September

Dr Shelley Hales, Bristol
Cities of the Dead: Pompeii in our Morbid Imagination

Wednesday 7 October

Professor Bert Smith, Oxford University
Sex and violence in Roman art (Roman Society lecture)

Wednesday 18 November

Dr Laura Swift, OU
Rediscovering Sappho

Thursday 10 December

Ben Kane, author
Clash of Empires: Rome vs. Macedon

Wednesday 10 February

Professor Michael Williams, Southampton University
'Olympus Moves to Hollywood': Film Stardom and the Ancient Past

Tuesday 16 March

Dr Anne Cotton, Head at PGS
Tending seeds and souls: ideas of education in Plato's Phaedrus

Wednesday 5 May (from 7.15)

Dr Emily Hauser, Exeter University and author
Recovering the women of ancient Greek myth (Hellenic Society lecture)

CHARGES: Please note that other than for members of the Classical Association, a £3 charge will be payable on the door for the Classics lectures. There is no charge for the History lectures.